President's Report

From Nigel Dutton

I did mention last month that the 2022 calendar is now in draft status and published, for discussion and comment, on the BAWA website. Unfortunately, the rapidly changing conditions regarding interstate travel required a complete revamp of the calendar. This was primarily due to the increased likelihood that, not only that the Gold Coast Congress will happen, but WA players will be able to attend and more importantly return home.

So apologies to all who wished to make plans with the calendar published, I hope that by the time that you read this the calendar is back on the website. If it's not – it will be soon.

As you read this you are likely to be preparing for the Joan Prince Memorial Swan River Swiss Pairs to be held at the WABC premises and no doubt looking forward to the Golden West Congress hosted by the Mandurah Bridge Club. These Gold Point events, both with 48 tables currently entered, remind us once again of our fortunate status in WA

BAWA strongly supports the government and medical advice regarding vaccinations and I would remind players that providing that vaccine supply and vaccination targets have been met that all Gold and Red Point events in 2022 will require participants to, not only be fully vaccinated but able to confirm their status. A QR coded vaccination certificate is now available via the MyGov website. I have received a couple of queries from clubs as to whether or not this applies to them. The answer is no – club green point sessions and club red point events that are for members only are solely the responsibility of the club. Naturally, open red point events such as congresses or open fundraising days have BAWA as the sponsoring organisation and therefore this rule will apply. The approval of the Masterpoints and future congresses will be contingent on the conditions of contest being met. ●

Mandurah Bridge Club

From Ian Jones

Mandurah Bridge Club has appointed Patricia Anderson, below, as President, with Ann Shalders Vice President.

The Annual Mandurah vs Rockingham Bridge Challenge was held in October and was narrowly won by Mandurah by one match point, the closest result ever. The day was a great success and everyone enjoyed themselves.

Saturday's Best 3 out of 4 event was won by Patricia Gaines and Jean McLarty, with Janet Torrens and Francisco Correa runners up.

Bayswater Bridge Club

From Sandy Sutton-Mattocks

Our Third Annual Congress on Sunday 3rd October was a resounding success with 17 tables playing in the Restricted under 300. There was a lovely vibe throughout the day which made it so enjoyable for everyone from players to Directors.

We thank our wonderful Director Neville Walker and Assisting Director Steven Rogoisky. They ensured that the morning Qualifying event and the Final and Plate in the afternoon all ran smoothly and in a timely manner.

We thank Pat Allen, our Convenor, for organising this event so effectively again this year and Barry and Faye Etherington for the fine work in keeping up with the refreshments. The Tennis Club opened the bar for us and donated second and third prizes for the Raffle and we thank Suzanne and the team very much for their support.

WA Seniors Week

Suggest to any senior friends or neighbours who would like to try their hand at bridge that a good place to start is the WA Seniors Week event at the Bayswater Bridge Club. There will be a Free Introductory Bridge Game and afternoon tea on November 8th from 1pm to 3pm held upstairs (with lift) at the Bayswater Bridge Club venue at the Tennis Club 80 Murray Street, Bayswater. All seniors welcome.

Denmark Bridge Club

From Philip Powell

Denmark holds fourth congress in bigger venue.

Denmark Bridge Club held its fourth congress over the weekend of October 15-17 – at a new venue.

Previous congresses were held at the Denmark Sea Rescue Function Centre, which offered spectacular views of the ocean. But the downside of this venue was the cramped premises and a cap on the number of tables.

So, the decision was taken to book the Shire of Denmark's Recreation Centre, which allowed more tables and a comfortable environment.

"We had lots of positive comments on the new venue," said club president Philip Powell. "Nigel Dutton even hijacked the awards ceremony to praise the organisation and urged us to hold the congress annually, instead of biannually."

The week following the congress saw the club move into new premises. After lengthy negotiations with the Shire of Denmark, the club now has access to a stand-alone building, McClean House, in the recreation centre precinct.

The club previously met in a room with limited space in the Denmark Community Resource Centre and before that in the Denmark St John Ambulance Building.

Special mention to Director Brian Wade who ran a flawless event and to the marvellous members who supplied a culinary feast for the entire Congress.

"This is an exciting move for us," said Philip. "For the first time in the club's history we have our own premises, which means no more clearing of tables and chairs after each session as well as more room. And we now have two toilets – so no longer do the gents have to leave the seat down!"

West Australian Bridge Club

From Kitty George

The club was delighted to welcome Andy Hung back to WA after “lockdown” in Queensland and subsequent quarantine. Around 180 keen bridge players were in attendance at his first workshop since his return where we all learnt to Bid and Play like an Expert. All of Andy’s lessons have now recommenced.

The WABC AGM was held following a Red Point event on Tuesday, 12 October.

Kate North was re-elected President. Vice President and Secretary Sylvia Bray. Treasurer Richard Basham. Tournament Committee Chairman Kitty George. Executive Officer & Membership Secretary Sheenagh Young. Committee Members Prue Hart, Brian Embleton, Janine Hughes, Jacqui Ecclestone. New members of our Management Committee are Eve Clarkson, Carla Sullivan and Bernard Yates.

At the meeting Kate North was presented with the Patrons Cup which she has now won for 3 consecutive years. What a great effort and congratulations Kate.

All Club Championships have now been finalised and congratulations are extended to:

Evening Pairs: Deana Wilson and Dave Munro 1st with 117.03 followed very closely by Patrick Cooney and Atsuko Takeuchi with 116.92 and 3rd Meredith Goodlet and Marcey Spilsbury.

Men's Pairs: 1st Vinod Nasta and Tim Wright with 125.30

Just beating out Jay Medhat and Ray Wood on 121.73 2nd

3rd Geoff Holman and Henry Christie

Congratulations are also extended to all participating players and Captains in our Interclub Teams competition. WABC placed first in each of the three divisions – well done! Our grateful thanks to our Teams Organisers and to John Beddow who has once again co-ordinated this event.

Wednesday night at WABC is the fun place to be with both the usual Duplicate and Supervised sessions being well attended. Participants in Andy's beginner lessons are also welcome to join as Andy makes available at no charge pre-dealt boards relevant to topics being covered together with printed hand outs addressing bidding and play. The bar is open and players may sip a little beverage during play and join together afterwards in the social area for shared nibbles. Non members are welcome to join us.

Entries for the WABC Xmas Congress are coming in fast. Don't miss out!

We would love to see you at this last Congress for 2021.

SPBC Ladies Pairs Championship

This event was held over two weeks with Linda Coli and Mimi Packer emerging the winners. Jan

Howell and Alison Orr finished second, with Gwyneira Brahma and Deana Wilson third. Competition director, Laurie Money, managed a complex movement to provide sitting seats for several pairs, and still managed to get every pair to play each other over the two weeks.

Friday evening Bridge

Friday, 7 January 2022 SPBC will once again start holding Friday night bridge – open to any bridge player, especially those pining for something to do now that Friday Night Football is in its off season.

This cartoon is obviously a joke

However, did you know that it is illegal for partners to play two different systems like this?

It appears that this strategy used to be adopted by professionals when playing with their clients – ensuring that the professional played almost all the hands. However, under the World Bridge Federation (and ABF) regulations, this practice is not allowed.

Swan Districts Bridge Club

From David Kinninmont

September was a busy time at the Swan Districts Bridge Club. The club held its championship competition over three weeks with 7 tables each week. The winners were Jeanne Walczak and Peter Walczak, with runners up, John Ewing and Steven Kemp and Rob Willemsen and Els Loohuys in third place

On the fifth Thursday of a month, the club holds a Mix & match day. This is a popular event, which occurred in September, where people get to play with different partners. A recommended bidding sheet based on American Standard is supplied the week before. Players use this as the basis for their bidding agreement.

Players attempting to find their new partners

Something that may be of interest to other clubs, is that Swans provide personalized bidding boxes. So that when players move, they take their bidding box with them. We believe that this has a number of benefits:

1. Reduces the chance of disease transference of to just the cards
2. The names of the opponents can be seen on their bidding box
3. People take more care of the bidding cards
